THE PRODUCTION

When Diane, a rather extraordinary permaculture gardener turns up in a New Jersey suburb, the local housewives will have more than their 'curb appeal' challenged.

Because Diane is, in fact, the Greek god Dionysus in disguise. Through a queering of the suburbs, they strive to cultivate a coven of housewives and restore the Earth's natural balance. But as the ancient being navigates the high-stakes world of granite countertops, artificial landscaping, and domesticity, Diane finds that conquering modern American suburbs might be harder than they expected.

____ THANK YOU

Many thanks to our staff and tutors who have supported the realisation of this production.

As always, we are immensely grateful to our bursary supporters who work with us to ensure that training at The Lir Academy is made possible for more emerging talent.

____ SUPPORT US

The Lir Academy is a registered charity (RCN: 20076689) and financially independent of Trinity College Dublin. As a non-profit, any box office, commercial or fundraised income goes back into the work we do. This includes financial student supports, mental health supports and outreach programmes to widen access and equality of training to our programmes. So, your decision to train with us, see a show, be our Friend or become a donor helps keep the actors, technicians and creatives of the future in education.

Please see more at thelir.ie/supportus. Thank you.
