

Administrative Assistant (Full Time)

Job Description

The Lir:

The Lir Academy at Trinity College Dublin, which opened its doors in September 2011, was developed by a partnership of the Cathal Ryan Trust and Trinity College Dublin. It is formally associated with the world-renowned Royal Academy of Dramatic Art (RADA) in London. The Lir aims to train young actors, designers, directors, playwrights, stage managers and theatre technicians to the highest international standards for careers in the theatre and allied professions. The Lir offers a three-year Bachelor in Acting (Hons) degree, a two-year Professional Diploma in Stage Management, a one-year Foundation Diploma in Acting & Theatre and one-year Master of Fine Art programmes in Playwriting, Stage Design (including set, costume and lighting) and Theatre Directing. A range of short courses are also being offered and further courses are planned.

The training offered by The Lir is closely linked to the ever-changing needs and directions of the theatre industry. The Lir has also fostered close links with the allied professions of film, television, radio and new media. The Lir is housed in an exciting new building at Grand Canal Dock, designed specifically for the range of courses it offers. It features a flexible black box studio with a seating capacity of more than 130, as well as smaller performance studio, a dance studio, technical workshop, scenic art workshop, wardrobe workshop, design studio and a range of flexible teaching spaces to suit the training needs of The Lir's young theatre practitioners.

All full-time students at The Lir are fully registered students of Trinity College Dublin and all degrees and diplomas are conferred by Trinity.
